

Acceptable Use of IT Systems Acknowledgement

Crestline Mortgage Bancorp • August 2026

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: ACCEPTABLE USE OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Effective Date: August 18, 2026

Issued By: Information Security and Human Resources

1. Policy Overview

Crestline Mortgage Bancorp provides employees with computing devices, network access, email, and internet access to facilitate business operations. This Acceptable Use Policy outlines the expectations for utilizing these systems securely and professionally.

2. No Expectation of Privacy

Employees should have no expectation of privacy when using company-owned hardware, software, or network infrastructure. Crestline Mortgage Bancorp reserves the right to monitor, log, review, and intercept any communications, internet browsing history, or files stored on company devices at any time, without prior notice, to ensure compliance with legal and security standards.

3. Prohibited Activities

Employees are strictly prohibited from engaging in the following activities on corporate systems:

- Accessing, transmitting, or storing material that is illegal, discriminatory, sexually explicit, or otherwise violates the company's Anti-Harassment Policy.
- Utilizing corporate email addresses for personal business ventures, political campaigning, or unauthorized solicitation.
- Downloading or installing unauthorized third-party software, browser extensions, or peer-to-peer file-sharing applications.
- Attempting to bypass firewall proxies, disable endpoint detection and response (EDR) software, or access network segments for which the employee lacks explicit authorization.

4. Bring Your Own Device (BYOD)

If an employee utilizes a personal smartphone to access corporate email or internal messaging applications (e.g., Slack), they must consent to the installation of Mobile Device Management (MDM) software. In the event the device is lost, stolen, or the employee is terminated, the company reserves the right to remotely wipe the corporate partition of the device.
